Who is my DRM?

A Digital Rights Manager or DRM registers students, orders specialized formats, and manages the delivery of items to students with documented print disabilities.

Public school corporations can have up to 5 DRMs and charter schools can have up to 3. DRMs are any staff member appointed by the superintendent or their designee. If you're not sure who your active DRMs are, you can contact the ICAM (Indiana Center for Accessible Materials) for guidance. To learn more about becoming a DRM, attend the webinar on September 5.
